About Martha Farrell Foundation

Martha Farrell Foundation (MFF) has been set up to carry forward the spirit and legacy of Dr Martha Farrell, a passionate civil society leader, renowned and respected in India and around the world for her work on women's rights, gender equality and adult education. Dr Farrell was killed in a terrorist attack in Kabul in May 2015. She was there to conduct a gender training for the Aga Khan Foundation.

The Foundation is committed to supporting organizations to comply with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act, 2013, and creating gender-sensitive and safe workplaces for all employees. The Foundation's "Making Workplaces Safe" program advances Dr Farrell's pioneering work in gender mainstreaming and prevention of sexual harassment at workplace through sensitization and awareness generation activities, workshops and training programmes, and creation of learning-training materials – tailor-made to suit the needs of individuals and organisations across private, public, government and educational sectors. In three years, the Foundation has trained more than 30,000 employees across different sectors. The Foundation also acts as third party/external member on Internal Committees of several organisations.

Context

The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, (“the Act”) was enacted on 23 April 2013 in India to provide protection against Sexual Harassment of women at workplace and for preventing and addressing complaints of Sexual Harassment. The law recognizes that Sexual Harassment results in the violation of a woman’s Fundamental Right to equality under Articles 14, 15 and 21 of the Constitution - which provide for equality under the law, prohibition of discrimination on grounds of religion, race, caste, sex or place of birth, and protection of life and personal liberty. The Act is an extension of Vishaka Guidelines issued by the Supreme Court of India in 1997, wherein for the first time the Supreme Court acknowledged that Sexual Harassment is a Human Rights Violation. The Act covers all working women who are part of the formal and informal sector.

The Act sets out two forums where the survivor of Sexual Harassment can make her Complaint, which are the Internal Committee and the Local Committee. The Act mandates that these Committees act independently and play an active role in prevention, prohibition and redressal of Sexual Harassment at the workplace. Chapter VIII, Section 21 (1) of the Act further states that the IC and LC must submit their annual report to the District Officer. Each State was mandated by the Ministry of Women and Child Development vide Notification 19-8-214-ww issued on 27th October 2014 to appoint a District Magistrate/Additional District Magistrate/Collector or Deputy Collector as a District Officer.
